Alexanders are proud to present to the market for the very first time this delightful three bedroom detached home, lovingly held within the same family since its construction over 70 years ago.

Occupying a generous plot of approximately half an acre, the property enjoys stunning far-reaching southerly views across the surrounding countryside and offers an abundance of potential for further improvement/extension (subject to the necessary consents).

The home offers a warm and inviting feel throughout, with well-balanced accommodation and an abundance of natural light, particularly evident in the sitting room which benefits from a triple-aspect outlook.

The property is set in beautifully established grounds, with mature planting, expansive lawns, and a high degree of seclusion provided by well-maintained boundaries.

Accommodation:

A staircase rises from the entrance hall, where two useful storage cupboards are conveniently positioned on either side of the front door. From here, the two ground floor reception rooms are accessed.

The generous sitting room spans the full depth of the property, extending from front to rear, and is bathed in natural light thanks to its triple-aspect windows. The accommodation flows seamlessly into a dining room, which enjoys pleasant views over the garden and leads through to the kitchen, complete with a separate pantry. Internal access to the garage is also provided from this area.

To the rear of the property, there is a practical utility room along with a guest cloakroom.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, two of which benefit from fitted cabinetry. All three are served by a family bathroom, complemented by a separate WC.

Gardens and land:

The property is approached via a tarmac driveway, providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leading to a larger-than-average garage. A neatly kept lawn wraps around the front of the property and continues to the rear.

The grounds are bordered by established hedgerows, affording a high degree of privacy, while mature and thoughtfully arranged planting creates a tranquil, secluded setting. A variety of established trees and shrubs encourage local wildlife, and to the far rear of the garden lies an additional lawned area, enjoying delightful views over the neighbouring fields.

Location:

Carlton is situated approximately two miles north of the popular Market Bosworth, surrounded by some of West Leicestershire's most attractive countryside, with picturesque walks towards Congerstone and Shackerstone. The village itself benefits from a well-regarded pub/café and church, while the nearby area offers a water park, canal walks, and a heritage steam railway.

The neighbouring town of Market Bosworth provides a variety of independent shops, restaurants, and amenities centred around its historic market square. The area also benefits from excellent sporting facilities, including bowls, rugby, and tennis clubs.

Well-regarded local schooling includes The Dixie Grammar School, The Market Bosworth School (rated "Outstanding" by Ofsted), and Congerstone Primary School.
