Alexanders offer to the market this delightful two bedroom cottage occupying a prime position in the highly sought-after village of Wymeswold. Renowned for its picturesque setting and strong community atmosphere, the village offers excellent amenities, including a village store, primary school, and a selection of well-regarded pubs.

Believed to date back to around 1750, this charming cottage has been lovingly maintained and sympathetically upgraded by the current owners. Rich in period charm and original character, distinctive features include a traditional pantile roof, exposed original beams, an attractive working brick fireplace, and beautifully preserved joinery throughout. Modern comforts have been carefully incorporated, including uPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a welcoming reception hall, a cosy sitting room, and a refitted, generously proportioned dining kitchen with direct access to the south-facing courtyard garden. Upstairs, the original staircase leads to a large double bedroom, a family bathroom, a dressing room, and a further bedroom beyond.

Externally, the property benefits from a small side courtyard garden, laid mainly to paving and decorative stone, with mature borders, a summer house, and access to a separate brick store.
