Situated within an established and popular residential area, this well-presented detached bungalow offers spacious and versatile single-storey accommodation. The property benefits from three double bedrooms, a re-fitted kitchen, gas central heating and uPVC double glazing, together with a driveway, garage and enclosed rear garden.

The accommodation offers well-proportioned living space throughout, with a comfortable living room featuring a bow window and attractive open fireplace, alongside a bright and practical kitchen with integrated appliances and direct access to the garden. Further useful features include a part-boarded and insulated loft, fitted with a pull-down ladder, providing excellent additional storage potential.

Externally, the property continues to impress with well-maintained gardens to both the front and rear, together with a generous driveway and garage. The enclosed rear garden provides a pleasant outdoor space, while the garage and adjoining brick-built outbuilding offer valuable additional storage and practical versatility.

Accommodation:

The property is accessed via a double-glazed front door opening into the entrance hall, which provides access to a useful cloaks cupboard and airing cupboard housing the hot water cylinder. There is also access to the part-boarded and insulated loft, which is fitted with a pull-down ladder and offers plenty of storage space.

The living room is a comfortable and welcoming reception space, featuring a bow window overlooking the rear aspect, together with a feature open fireplace with mantel and surround.

The re-fitted kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, complemented by straight-edge work surfaces, sink and drainer. Integrated appliances include an oven and hob with a stainless steel canopy extractor hood over, while there is also space for a fridge/freezer and dishwasher. Sliding patio doors provide direct access to the rear garden and allow plenty of natural light into the room.

There are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefiting from fitted wardrobes extending along one wall.

The bathroom is fitted with a white three-piece suite comprising a wash hand basin and low-flush WC set within a vanity unit with cupboard beneath, together with a bath and overhead shower. Contemporary tiling features to the wet areas, with an extractor fan also fitted.

Gardens and land:

To the front of the property is a driveway providing off-road parking and leading to the garage, together with an area laid to lawn. The garage is fitted with an up-and-over door, power and lighting, plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, and houses the wall-mounted Ideal central heating boiler.

To the rear, the enclosed garden features a paved patio seating area and a raised lawn, complemented by courtesy lighting. The garden is enclosed by timber panel fencing and also benefits from a useful brick-built outbuilding attached to the rear of the garage, providing valuable additional storage space.

Location:

Melton Mowbray is a thriving and historic market town, offering an excellent range of amenities and a strong sense of community. The town centre provides an attractive mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and traditional public houses, alongside regular markets which remain an important part of local life. Renowned as the 'Rural Capital of Food', Melton is particularly well known for its food heritage, including Melton Mowbray Pork Pies and Stilton cheese.

The town is surrounded by attractive rolling countryside, offering plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. Melton Country Park is particularly popular, extending to approximately 140 acres with wildlife lakes, walking trails and play areas, while the surrounding rural landscape provides a wealth of opportunities for walking and exploring.

Melton Mowbray is also well placed for access to the wider East Midlands, with the A606 and A607 providing road links towards Nottingham, Leicester and Grantham, together with connections towards the A1 and A46. The town benefits from its own railway station, offering services towards Leicester and Peterborough, while regular bus services provide further connections to surrounding towns and villages.
