This well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offers comfortable and well-proportioned accommodation, together with a particularly generous garden and excellent parking. Ideally situated on Welby Lane in Melton Mowbray, the property provides a practical layout with attractive character features and plenty of outdoor space.

The sitting room provides a welcoming principal reception space, featuring a bay window and attractive feature fireplace, with an opening leading through to the adjoining dining room. French doors from the dining room provide a lovely connection with the garden, whilst the dual-aspect kitchen offers a good range of base and wall-mounted units, work surfaces, ample space for appliances and a door leading directly outside.

There are three bedrooms in total, comprising two generous double bedrooms and a useful third bedroom, together with a family bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a block-paved frontage providing parking for two vehicles, together with a detached single garage. The exceptionally long rear garden is a particular highlight, featuring a seating terrace immediately outside the French doors and extensive lawn beyond, offering plenty of space for outdoor enjoyment and considerable scope for further landscaping or enhancement, subject to any necessary permissions.
