Alexanders offer to market this attractive and incredibly rare double bay-fronted traditional family home, occupying an established position on the highly regarded Burton Road in Ashby-de-la-Zouch. Dating back to the 1930s, the property retains an appealing period character, with attractive red brick elevations and a traditional pitched tiled roof. Set behind an established walled frontage, mature planting provides privacy and creates an attractive approach. A gated driveway provides access to the detached garage and ample parking, whilst internally the property offers well-proportioned, stylish and thoughtfully updated accommodation throughout.

The stylish kitchen/breakfast room provides a particular highlight, combining a smart contemporary finish with a range of high-quality units and integrated appliances. This complements the property's original character beautifully, creating a home that balances period charm with modern living.

The established gardens provide a private setting, with tiered lawns, mature planting and paved areas for outdoor seating and entertaining. The property is conveniently situated for Ashby-de-la-Zouch town centre, with its excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities, whilst the A42 provides excellent links towards Birmingham, the M42 and the wider West Midlands.

Accommodation:

A porch leads into a welcoming reception hall, providing access to the formal sitting room with feature gas fireplace and double doors leading into a further reception room. To the rear is the stylish kitchen/breakfast room, fitted with a range of high-quality units and integrated appliances. Further accommodation includes a dining room, downstairs WC, laundry room and home office/studio located to the rear of the detached garage. The first floor provides a number of well-proportioned bedrooms together with bathroom accommodation. Throughout, the property retains a pleasing sense of character, complemented by stylish and thoughtfully updated interiors.

Gardens and land:

The property is approached through wrought-iron gates onto a paved driveway, providing ample parking and access to the detached garage. The front garden is a particular feature, enclosed by an attractive brick wall and established borders, with mature shrubs, ornamental planting and a shaped evergreen creating a good degree of privacy. To the rear, the gardens provide a private and established setting, offering a combination of tiered lawned areas, mature planting and paved areas suitable for outdoor seating and entertaining.

Location:

Excellent commuter links provide straightforward connections to Burton upon Trent, Coalville, Leicester and Derby, with the A42 providing direct access towards the M42, M1 and wider Midlands motorway network. Birmingham and Nottingham are also within comfortable commuting distance.
