General Description:

Welcome to Castlegate House, a charming and well-regarded development of beautifully maintained apartments, perfectly positioned in the very heart of Ashby de la Zouch. Set just moments from the historic Market Street, this attractive residence enjoys a prime town centre setting while offering a sense of privacy and security rarely found so centrally.

This superb two bedroom, two bathroom apartment has been thoughtfully and lovingly renovated by the current owners to create a stylish yet highly functional home. Contemporary finishes blend seamlessly with generous proportions throughout, resulting in an inviting living space that is equally suited to modern lifestyles, whether entertaining, working from home, or simply relaxing in comfort.

Upon arrival, the property is approached via electronic gates leading to a private car park, where each apartment benefits from allocated parking. A secure communal entrance with intercom system provides access to the building, and the well-maintained communal hallway is served by both stairs and a lift, offering ease of access to all floors.

Accommodation:

Internally, the apartment opens into an impressive open-plan living area that effortlessly combines lounge, dining, and kitchen spaces into one cohesive and elegant environment. The recently remodelled kitchen forms a true focal point, showcasing a tasteful range of bespoke contrasting units, sleek quartz work surfaces, and a comprehensive selection of integrated appliances, all designed with both style and practicality in mind.

The accommodation continues with two well-proportioned double bedrooms, offering flexibility for a range of living styles. The principal bedroom benefits from the added luxury of a modern en suite bathroom, while the second bedroom is served by an attractive refitted shower room. Both bathrooms feature contemporary three-piece suites with quality tiled surrounds, completing the apartment's refined internal finish.
