Alexanders of Ashby are delighted to present to the market this outstanding detached bungalow, formerly serving as The Mess Room to the neighbouring Victorian Station House before being tastefully reimagined by local developers. Tucked away in an enviable cul-de-sac position, the property enjoys a peaceful setting alongside private gardens and the added benefit of off-road parking.

Internally, the home offers beautifully light-filled living spaces, beginning with an entrance porch complete with a useful cloaks cupboard. This leads into a superb open-plan living area, where a feature fireplace with a usable chimney creates a charming focal point. The space provides generous room for both sitting and dining and seamlessly incorporates a stunning contemporary kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and full-height units, complemented by sleek work surfaces and the added luxury of underfloor heating.

Further accommodation is accessed via a central hallway and comprises two delightful bedrooms, both offering comfortable proportions suitable for a variety of uses. These are served by a stylish, modern shower room, completing the internal layout.

Externally, the property has been designed with low maintenance in mind. The front approach features shaped block-paved pathways and gravelled beds, while to the side there is a pleasant patio area alongside a neatly lawned garden, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.
