This charming and stylish barn conversion occupies a discreet courtyard setting just off Main Street in the highly regarded village of Congerstone. Retaining a wealth of character, the property combines exposed brickwork and timber beams with a contemporary specification and thoughtfully designed single-storey accommodation.

The accommodation comprises two generous double bedrooms, a stylish dining kitchen, light and welcoming sitting room with a stunning feature fireplace and inset log burner, and beautifully appointed wet room. The sitting room features exposed brickwork, ceiling beams, full-height glazing and French doors opening directly onto the garden.

Outside, the property is approached via a private courtyard with parking for two cars. To the rear is a particularly attractive and thoughtfully landscaped garden, with a decked sun terrace, central brick-paved patio, established formal borders, useful home office / studio and private car port.

Accommodation:

The accommodation is arranged entirely over one floor and opens into a welcoming reception hall with full-height glazing overlooking the courtyard and exposed brickwork providing an immediate sense of the property's original character.

The contemporary dining kitchen is fitted with an excellent range of wall and base units, integrated appliances and four-ring hob, with exposed brickwork and a dedicated dining area adding to its character and versatility. Double doors open through to the impressive sitting room, a particularly light and inviting space with a feature fireplace and inset log-burner, exposed brickwork, ceiling beams, full-height glazing and French doors opening directly onto the garden.

There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the main bedroom enjoying exposed brickwork and the second overlooking the gardens. Completing the accommodation is a beautifully appointed wet room, fitted with a large drenching shower, twin wash hand bowls, stylish Porcelanosa tiling and contemporary fittings, creating a luxurious and practical finish.

Gardens and land:

The rear garden is particularly attractive and thoughtfully landscaped, designed with ease of maintenance and outdoor entertaining in mind. A decked sun terrace immediately adjoins the house before leading through to a central brick-paved patio, providing an excellent setting for outdoor dining and relaxation.

The garden is further complemented by established formal borders incorporating lavender and a variety of flowering plants and herbaceous planting, creating an attractive and colourful backdrop. There is also useful home office/studio in the garden, whilst access leads to a private car port with power and space for a further vehicle.

Location:

Congerstone is a highly regarded and picturesque village set amongst some of West Leicestershire's most attractive countryside. The village retains a strong community character and is home to a well-respected primary school, whilst the surrounding countryside provides numerous opportunities for walking and outdoor pursuits, including attractive routes along the nearby Ashby Canal.

The historic market town of Market Bosworth lies a short distance to the south and offers an excellent range of everyday amenities, independent shops, restaurants, public houses and leisure facilities, together with a choice of highly regarded private and state schooling.

For commuters, the property is conveniently positioned for access to the wider East and West Midlands, with the M42 and M1 both readily accessible. This combination of attractive village surroundings, excellent local amenities and convenient transport links makes Congerstone a particularly desirable location for those seeking a quieter rural lifestyle without sacrificing accessibility.
