This charming detached home offers a well-balanced layout with bright, flowing living spaces and neatly presented interiors throughout. The overall design creates a natural sense of space, with each area connecting seamlessly to enhance both comfort and day-to-day living. A standout feature is the dual-aspect lounge opening into a conservatory, forming a light-filled and versatile setting.

The outdoor space has been thoughtfully arranged to provide a practical yet attractive environment. A combination of patio and decking areas allows for flexible use, while the structured garden design ensures ease of maintenance without compromising on visual appeal. A garden office with power and insulation adds further versatility to the property.

Positioned within the village of Bagworth, the property benefits from a pleasant setting that combines a sense of community with accessibility. Nearby amenities and surrounding towns provide a range of everyday conveniences, while transport links support straightforward travel across the region.

Accommodation:

The property is entered via a welcoming porch leading into a central reception hall, introducing the well-maintained interiors. The ground floor offers a spacious dual-aspect lounge filled with natural light, which flows seamlessly into a conservatory at the rear, creating a versatile living and entertaining space. A separate dining room sits to the rear, alongside a well-appointed breakfast kitchen fitted with matching units and complemented by a dedicated utility area with direct garden access.

To the first floor, the home offers four generously proportioned bedrooms, providing flexibility for a range of uses. The main bedroom benefits from an en suite, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a modern family bathroom.

Gardens and land:

The rear garden has been designed for ease of maintenance while remaining an attractive outdoor space. A slab-paved patio provides an ideal setting for outdoor dining, complemented by a separate timber decking area for additional seating. The garden is finished with a stepped artificial lawn, bordered by timber sleepers for a neat and structured appearance.

A garden office is positioned to the rear of the plot, offering a versatile space with power and insulation, ideal for a range of uses, along with additional parking located alongside.
