Arden & Way are delighted to present this stunning, fully renovated detached property, offering a rare opportunity to own a spacious five/six-bedroom home with an exceptional equestrian setup and extensive land.

Nestled within two acres of mostly grazing land, this beautiful home boasts panoramic views of the northern harbour, providing a tranquil yet convenient location with direct access to the island. The property is set back from Havant Road, ensuring peace and privacy, while still offering easy access in and out of the island.

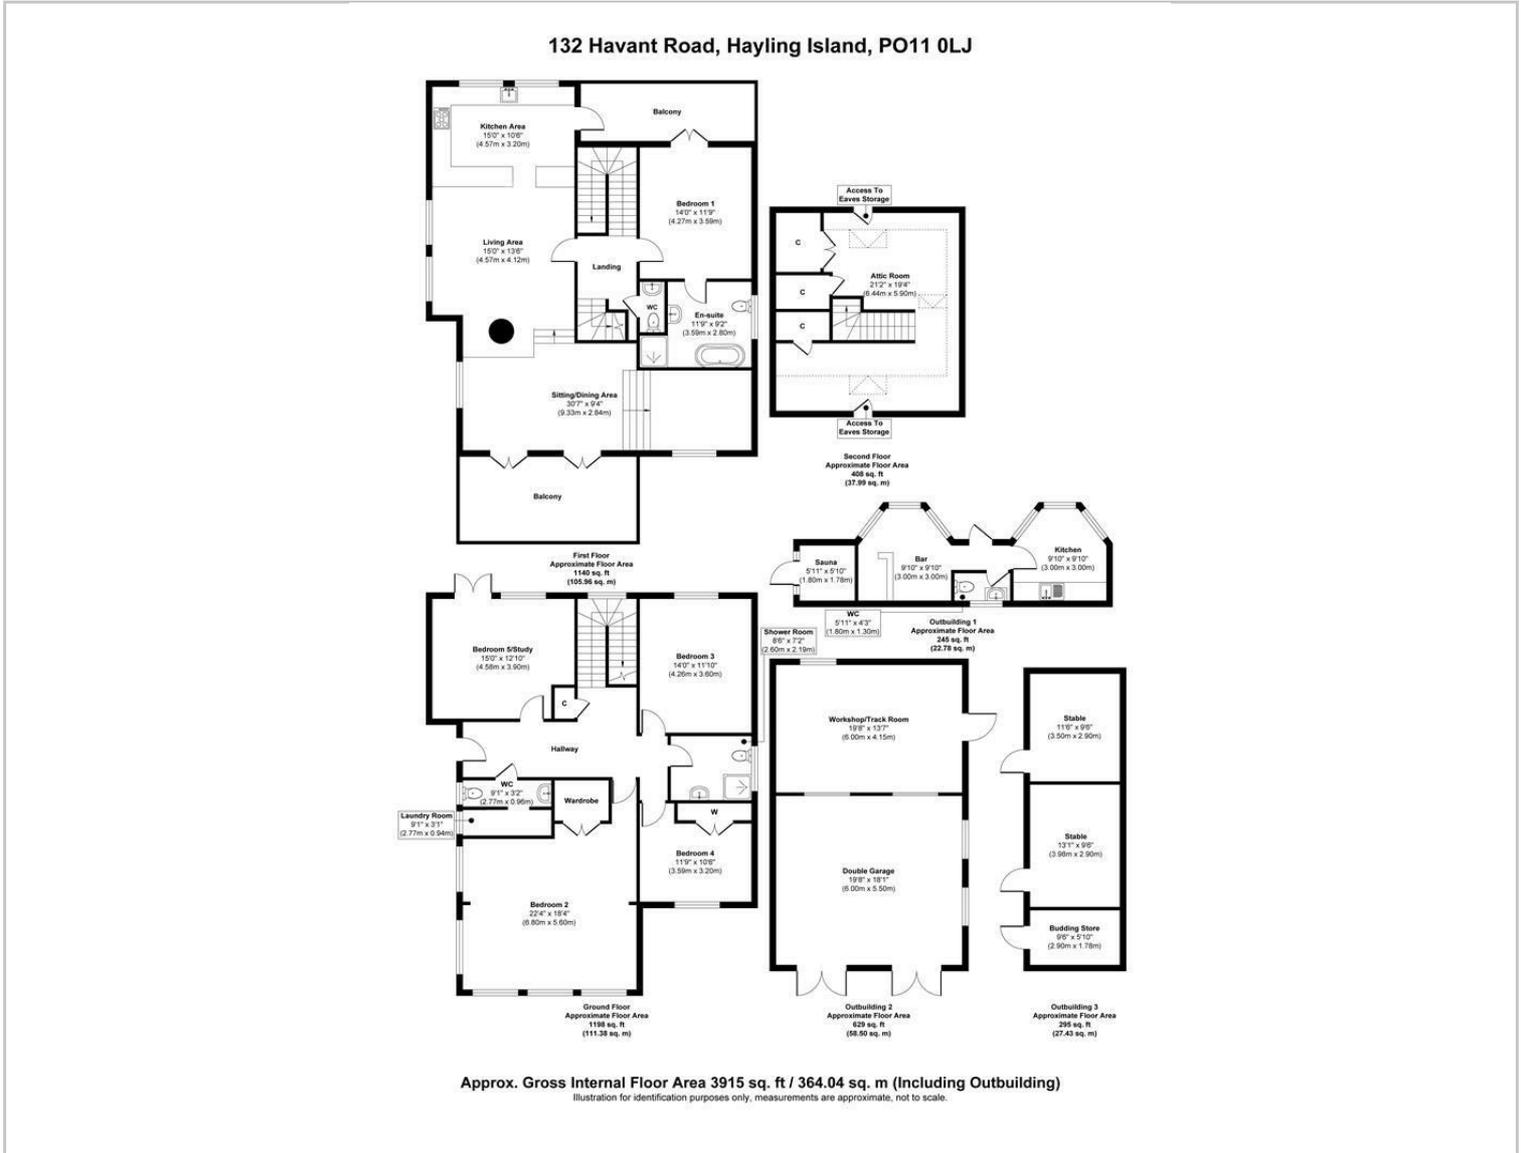

As you enter through private gates and drive along the sweeping driveway, you are greeted by ample parking space in front of the main house and rear garage. The drive continues to the equestrian facilities, which include two stables, a tack room, a large hay barn, and a storage shed, all offering plenty of space for horse enthusiasts. Adjacent to the stable yard, the land opens up, providing endless potential for development or additional outdoor pursuits.

For added flexibility, the property includes a three-bedroom mobile home and a separate one-bedroom annex, each with its own private garden – perfect for extended family, guests, or rental income.
