Standing in generous private gardens with an excellent degree of privacy, an attractive and appealing detached character property. Close to Lyme Park, this extended, executive residence could be the perfect forever home for many types of buyers. Balanced four bedroom accommodation with a larger than average master bedroom suite and coupled with a stunning open plan living room and dining kitchen with central island. Set back from the road and enjoying a sheltered plot within a highly sought after area. Full of character including exposed beams, wood burning stove and panels and complimented by the recent addition of a detached garden room with bifold doors. Viewing highly recommended.

Disley is situated on the east of Cheshire and is the gateway to the Peak District. It lays claim to the famous National Trust owned Lyme Park which offers the largest house in Cheshire and was used for filming part of Pride and Prejudice. Disley maintains the charming village feel with many amenities including the local infant school, independent shops, public houses and restaurants. Ideally placed on the Manchester Piccadilly to Buxton railway line and the recently completed new relief road to Manchester airport, make the village ideal for the commuter of today. With the High Peak on our doorstep, those wanting the escape to outdoors won't have to travel too far!
