The Property

Deceptively spacious is a word that can be genuinely used to describe this superb, extended, semi-detached townhouse offering over 1850 sq ft of living space on three floors, presented to an extremely high standard with quality fittings throughout and an ideal location which is just a short stroll to Burton Road and its array of cafés, restaurants & independent shops, and within close proximity of Cavendish Road Primary and Didsbury High School.

The numerous noteworthy features include an impressive, extended, open plan living/kitchen area with a comprehensive range of units, matching breakfast bar and bi-fold doors to the enclosed rear garden, a generous front reception room and downstairs WC. The first floor provides three excellent double bedrooms, the main with en-suite shower room and fitted wardrobes, and the family bathroom, whilst on the second floor is an impressive master bedroom with en-suite shower room, dressing area with fitted wardrobes, excellent eaves storage space and a nice sized balcony with elevated views.

Externally, there is an enclosed and easy to maintain garden, with useful brick store (11'8" x 5'2"), allocated gated parking for two vehicles beyond and a small garden area to the front.
