The Property

 AVAILABLE MARCH  Located on a well regarded road only a short stroll from both Chorlton Village and Longford Park is this superbly presented three double bedroom mid terrace period property. The property has been renovated to offer three floors of spacious and light accommodation with wooden flooring throughout. The property is ideally situated for all local amenities, schools, parks and transport links including the Metro as well as being within walking distance to the vibrant scene of Beech Road. On entrance to the property there is an entrance hall which leads to the large open plan Lounge/Dining/Kitchen area with French doors leading to the good size walled courtyard garden. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms one to the rear has Juliet balcony and a large bathroom with bath and separate shower cubicle. To the second floor there is a large Bedroom with en-suite.

To the front of the property is a walled garden. This property has been beautifully designed and finished to a high standard and is one not to be missed.
