The Property

This beautifully presented ground floor apartment forms part of an impressive period conversion, set in a highly sought-after location. It enjoys a generous south-west facing terrace with direct access to the communal gardens and offers approximately 2173 sq ft of accommodation.

The property is ideally situated just off Arthog Road in Hale, placing it roughly equidistant between Hale Village with its popular shops, bars and restaurants and Hale Barns Village Centre. The M56 and M6 motorway networks are easily accessible, providing swift links to Manchester, Manchester Airport and the wider region. Accommodation can be reached either via the main communal entrance, which has a few steps up to the front door, or from the rear through the lift, which opens directly into the apartment. The private entrance leads into an open-plan hallway with a cloaks cupboard, flowing into a dining area with a bay window.

A superbly proportioned lounge of around 420 sq ft features windows on three sides, an attractive fireplace and two sets of French doors opening onto the south-west facing terrace, overlooking the gardens. The breakfast kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of white high-gloss units and a central island, with a useful utility room situated off to the side. There are three excellent double bedrooms, all with built-in furniture. They are served by three bath/shower rooms, two of which are en suite. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious at over 300 sq ft. Externally, the development is accessed through remote-controlled gates. Residents' parking surrounds the building and the property benefits from an additional space within a garage block at the rear. This is an exceptional apartment, ideal for anyone seeking to downsize from a larger family home while maintaining generous living space and elegant surroundings.
