* SEE OUR VIDEO TOUR * Within one of Glossop's most sought after locations, this well presented, 1930's built, semi-detached house, which offers extended living space and will certainly not disappoint! Briefly comprising of an entrance hall, front lounge with bay window and window seat, the dining room has not only been extended, but opened up into the kitchen which now provides a great space, with a wood burning stove, shaker style kitchen with polished Granite tops and appliances. Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a modern shower room whilst outside there is a double width resin bound driveway and an attached carport leads through to the detached garage at the rear. Sunny, South Westerly facing private gardens, ideal for those barmy summer months. Energy Rating,
