Hawthorn Square Wilmslow SK9 5EH

Guide Price £639,950

A beautifully presented four bedroom townhouse, set within the secure and desirable gated community of Hawthorn Square, in the heart of Wilmslow. This stylish home enjoys a superb central location, placing the excellent shopping, restaurants, cafés and bars of Wilmslow's high street just moments away, along with independent boutiques, green spaces and excellent transport links into Manchester. Wilmslow is also well regarded for its schools and easy access to the Cheshire countryside. The accommodation in brief comprises: a spacious entrance hallway, with handy understairs storage and access to the front reception room, offering versatile accommodation space. From the hallway, there is also a downstairs WC, complete with a very useful built-in utility cupboard that includes plumbing for a washing machine. The hallway opens into a stunning open-plan kitchen diner, finished to a high standard with matching wall and base units, complementary worktop surfaces and a selection of integrated appliances. This generous living area is flooded with light from the skylights and UPVC French doors that open directly onto the rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. To the first floor, the main living room occupies the front aspect and is an excellent size while the principal bedroom occupies the rear aspect with a well-proportioned room with a feature Juliet balcony and its own ensuite shower room. The top floor comprises three further bedrooms, offering flexible accommodation, together with a family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from three parking spaces and an external garage. To the rear is a private, well-maintained courtyard-style garden, providing a pleasant and low-maintenance outdoor space. Viewings Essential.
