WHAT'S GREAT?

A rare and fantastic opportunity has arisen to acquire this unique and characterful cottage, with STUNNING countryside views situated "off the beaten track" and offering truly remote village living, whilst being just a stone's throw away from local amenities.

The property is situated in the popular village of Arthingworth just a short drive from Market Harborough and gives you easy access to the A14.

This cottage has been completely renovated throughout which offers a modern take on cottage life.

Upon entering the cottage you will be greeted with a lovely entrance hall, which leads through to the refitted ultra modern kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and fantastic views on the countryside, leading on from the kitchen you have great sized dining area with patio doors leading onto the garden and WC, to complete the ground floor you have a cosy living room with working log burner.

To the first floor of this property you have four generous sized bedrooms, The master benefits from the amazing views over the rear garden and a refitted family bathroom.

Outside the well-established garden wraps around the house and is full of beautiful flowers and plants and is also extremely private with one of the best views in Leicestershire. There is side access to the front of the house with a good size driveway.

This really is a "one of a kind" kind of property, Please call Oscar James to arrange a viewing.
