SELLER'S SECRET

Having bought the property from new, we have thoroughly enjoyed the house and its highly convenient, village location. It has been ideal for commuting and travel, offering straightforward access to both Lutterworth, Market Harborough, and Leicester, as well as efficient links to London. We have invested in high-specification upgrades throughout the home, including a modernised kitchen with an induction hob. A key feature is the climate-controlled air conditioning to both floors, which provides efficient cooling in the summer and heating in the winter. We are confident the new owners will appreciate the comfort and quality these additions bring.

Why we like it....

This fantastic property is offered in beautiful condition throughout, is high specification and is one not to be missed! Viewings are strongly advised to appreciate this great home, vast space and desirable location.

To buy or not to buy....
