EPC Rating - C

Conveniently situated close to Kettering town centre and the local hospital, the flat offers excellent access to a range of amenities. Transport links are also a key advantage, with Kettering Train Station providing direct rail services to London St Pancras and other major destinations, making it ideal for commuters. There are also good road links to the A14 and A43, offering easy access to surrounding towns and cities.

Additional benefits include allocated parking and a secure entry system, providing both comfort and peace of mind.
