WHAT'S GREAT?

This delightful two-bedroom Victorian property is ideally situated just a short stroll from Raunds High Street, where a range of local shops and amenities await. Perfect for first-time buyers or those looking to downsize, this home combines period charm with spacious living areas and a large rear garden.

Entered via a porch into the entrance hall, which leads into a spacious dining room featuring built-in storage. An archway opens into the lounge, where a beautiful bay window fills the room with natural light. The original open fireplace currently boarded could easily be re-connected with a log burner.

The open-plan kitchen and utility area is a great space with useful under-stairs storage ideal for a pantry.

Upstairs you'll find two generous double bedrooms, each boasting original feature fireplaces that add a touch of period elegance. The family bathroom is fitted with a classic three-piece suite.

The property benefits from a low-maintenance front garden and a particularly generous rear garden with huge potential.
