Set in the sought-after south side of Rushden, the property enjoys a wonderfully private position at the end of a quiet road serving just four houses, ensuring no through traffic.

Inside, the home boasts an impressive and individual layout. The ground floor is open plan in feel, with each room flowing seamlessly into the next while still retaining its own distinct space. The rear garden enjoys a good degree of privacy and occupies a generous plot, a rare find on a modern development. Its low maintenance with artificial lawn, sleeper borders and a large decked area perfect for seating.
