SELLER'S SECRET

We've loved living here, especially because everything we need is right on our doorstep. The local shops, schools, and parks are all within easy walking distance, which has been so convenient for our family. It's a friendly area with a real community feel - we'll really miss that!

Why we like it....

This property offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers looking to step onto the property ladder in a desirable area. The home has a lovely layout as it stands, but there's also great potential to open up the downstairs space and really make it your own.
