WHAT'S GREAT?

Nestled in the charming area of Broad Green, Wellingborough, we are pleased to introduce 'Hatton Mews', an exclusive and luxurious development tailored for those aged 55 and over. Completed in 2018 by the esteemed local builders, Seagrave Developments, this remarkable property offers a large one-bedroom ground floor apartment that is presented to the market with no upper chain.

'Hatton Mews' comprises 30 beautifully designed apartments, thoughtfully arranged over three floors, fostering a sense of community while ensuring the privacy and comfort that residents desire. Each apartment is crafted to an exceptional standard, featuring modern amenities and the convenience of assisted living facilities. Residents can enjoy the peace of mind provided by a 24-hour emergency call system, ensuring safety for both you and your loved ones.

Accessibility is a key feature of this development, with an internal lift available for all residents. The property also boasts a dedicated parking area and beautifully landscaped communal gardens, perfect for enjoying the outdoors and socialising with neighbours.

If you are interested in discovering more about this exceptional property within 'Hatton Mews', please do not hesitate to contact our sole selling agents, Oscar James, today. 'Hatton Mews' is not merely a place to live; it is a vibrant community designed for a fulfilling and comfortable lifestyle.

SELLER'S SECRET

We are aware this property is better proportioned compared to many others in the development. This was validated from the friends the owner had made. Being on the ground floor and close to the Doctors and other conveniences made this property very practical.

Why we like it....

Situated in Wellingborough town centre you have all the amenities on your doorstep so to speak. With communal parking and gardens this property has a great community feel.
