The Property in Brief...

This CHAIN FREE well loved four bedroomed Victorian property is situated in Burton Latimer, walking distance to all the local amenities and offers a fantastic amount of space and potential.

Burton Latimer is a small market town with so much to offer, it has an abundance of eateries, shops, schools and is surrounded by beautiful countryside. Not only this but neighbouring towns offer fantastic train links that can get you into London within the hour.

This character property is set over two floors and really is like a Tardis, upon entering you'll be greeted with a large entrance hall leading to the spacious lounge, with beautiful bay window and feature fireplace, separate dining room with French doors out to the garden and the great sized kitchen with large storage cupboard and more access to the garden.

Upstairs there are four bedrooms, two large doubles and two singles, and the family bathroom which has been converted into a wet room.

Outside the property has a lovely frontage and to the rear is a fully enclosed established garden, with private side access, and a couple of brick built storage sheds, and even a half converted outbuilding at the rear of the garden.

This is a home that buyers can put their own stamp on as it has bags of potential, to arrange to come and view it, please give Oscar James a call today.
