WHAT'S GREAT?

Situated in the highly sought after village of Geddington, this newly refurbished stone built cottage must be viewed to be appreciated!

The accommodation is well-proportioned with a dual aspect lounge with feature fireplace, built in storage and an idyllic window seat. You will also find a separate dining room and good size refitted kitchen, which boasts integrated appliances and overlooks the courtyard garden, a refitted family bathroom with utility cupboard completes the ground floor.

To the first floor there are two generous double bedrooms.

Finally the garden to the rear is sunny and low maintenance and offers gated access to the front.

The property is presented in excellent order, it is bright and airy and is offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN.
