WHAT'S GREAT?

Situated on Rothwell Road in the charming market town of Desborough, near Kettering, this delightful three bedroom bungalow is within easy walking distance of the town centre and local amenities.

Brimming with character throughout, the property enjoys a beautifully private rear garden, creating a peaceful retreat to relax and unwind.

The welcoming entrance hall provides access to two generously proportioned bedrooms, a dining room which could be used as a bedroom, kitchen, and a spacious lounge featuring an attractive fireplace. The lounge flows seamlessly into the conservatory, offering additional living space and lovely views over the garden.

Outside, the mature and enclosed rear garden provides a wonderful setting for outdoor enjoyment in complete privacy. A brick-built outbuilding with power and lighting offers excellent potential as a home office, workshop, studio, or hobby space. The property also benefits from off-road parking for two vehicles, adding further convenience.

To arrange a viewing and fully appreciate all that this charming home has to offer, please contact Oscar James.
