AT A GLANCE...

Light & airy living room

A modern kitchen, with separate utility & dining room

Four sizeable bedrooms

Modern family bathroom, ensuite shower room to bedroom 1 & ground floor WC

A low maintenance rear garden

Driveway offers off road parking, with a single detached garage too

WHAT'S GREAT?

Great for families and located nearby to parks, green spaces and some fantastic schooling options!

Occupying a desirable position within the highly regarded Oakley Vale development, this substantial four-bedroom detached family home offers spacious and versatile accommodation throughout, perfectly suited to modern family living.

Beautifully presented and well maintained, the property features a generous lounge filled with natural light, with double-doored access out on to the rear garden. The well-appointed kitchen is immaculately presented, provides great storage and appliance options, and benefits from having a separate utility room too. There is a separate dining room, which is a versatile second reception room which could be useful for multiple purposes.

All four bedrooms are to the first floor, off of a well laid out and spacious landing, and all four are generous in size, ensuring comfortable and flexible accommodation for growing families. The main family bathroom and ensuite shower room both are to the first floor, with the ground floor benefitting from a WC.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a private rear garden, an attractive front garden, off-road parking via the paved driveway, and a single garage, providing excellent storage and parking facilities.

Oakley Vale remains one of Corby's most popular residential locations, offering a strong sense of community alongside convenient access to local schools, shops, parks, and everyday amenities. The property also benefits from excellent road networks and rail connections, making it an ideal choice for commuters travelling further afield.

Combining generous living space, a sought-after location, and excellent family-friendly features, this outstanding home is not to be missed. Early viewing is strongly advised, for further details- get in touch with the team at Oscar James, Corby!
