Working for you and with you

31 Woodlands Estate
Blean, Canterbury, CT2 9JW

Well presented fully residential park home (over 50's) located on the desirable 'Woodlands' development in Blean. Situated in an elevated position on the site, with distant countryside views, this two bedroom park home has a spacious lounge/diner and a private enclosed garden. Adjacent to the home are residents' parking spaces with visitors' parking available close by.

The accommodation comprises utility porch, kitchen, generous lounge/diner with dual aspect outlook, two bedrooms and a shower room. The wraparound garden has been thoughtfully landscaped and provides a sunny secluded outside space with distant views.

Woodlands park sits adjacent to Blean historic woodlands. The village of Blean is situated on the outskirts of Canterbury with regular bus service located just outside the park entrance to the local towns of Whitstable, Herne Bay and Canterbury.

Blean has a doctor's surgery, village store, garden centre with coffee shop and restaurant.

The historic city of Canterbury has an extensive shopping centre with the main high street brands and a large array of independent shops. It also offers two mainline railway stations, including the high speed link service to St. Pancras.

The seaside town of Whitstable is again a short drive (or bus ride) away (3.8 miles) and offers independent shopping, a working harbour and coastal walks.
