Description

Situated in the quiet cul-de-sac of Yeovilton Place in North Kingston, this charming end-terrace house presents a wonderful opportunity for families and first-time buyers alike. Built in 1996, this property has been lovingly maintained and is now available for the first time since its construction.

Spanning an impressive 1,131 square feet, the house boasts a 24ft lounge/dining room along with a conservatory, perfect for both entertaining guests and enjoying quiet family evenings. The well-appointed kitchen overlooks the rear garden and upstairs there are three comfortable bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering ample space for family members and guests.

Outside there is off street parking, an integral garage and a larger than average rear garden featuring mature trees, a patio and side access.

The location is particularly advantageous, being well-positioned for local schools, making it an ideal choice for families with children. This delightful home is a rare find and presents an excellent opportunity to create lasting memories in a wonderful community. Do not miss your chance to view this exceptional property.

Situation

Yeovilton Place is a sought after road within the Royal Park Gate development situated just moments from the River Thames and within close proximity of Richmond Park. This is a wonderful environment for a family being ideally positioned between Kingston and Richmond town centres with their extensive range of shops, restaurants and overland & underground stations providing services to Waterloo and the City. The local shops of Ham Parade are close by and Ham common is a short distance away. The standard of schooling within the immediate area is excellent and these include The Kingston Academy, Tiffin Girls, Fernhill Primary and Grey Court.
