Description

Situated on Richmond Road in the sought-after North Kingston area, this imposing semi-detached residence, dating from 1928, presents an exceptional opportunity to acquire an impressive family home that effortlessly marries period character with contemporary comfort.

Arranged over a generous footprint, the property comprises five well-proportioned bedrooms and three reception rooms, providing versatile and expansive accommodation suited to both everyday family life and formal entertaining. A substantial double-height side extension has been thoughtfully incorporated, flooding the principal living spaces with natural light and significantly enhancing the overall sense of scale and flow.

To the rear, the 94ft south/west facing garden offers a particularly appealing outdoor retreat, ideal for al fresco dining and family recreation. Off-street parking for multiple vehicles completes the practical specification.

The location is particularly noteworthy being within immediate proximity of well-regarded local schools, making this an especially compelling proposition for families.

A residence of this calibre, combining generous proportions and a prime North Kingston address, represents a rare opportunity in one of the areas most desirable postcodes.

Situation

Richmond Road is a highly regarded address, sitting just moments from the banks of the River Thames and the sweeping 2,400-acre expanse of Richmond Park. Ideally positioned between the vibrant town centres of Kingston and Richmond, residents benefit from an outstanding choice of restaurants, shops, and transport links via both overland and underground stations. The charming local shops of Ham Parade and the open spaces of Canbury Gardens and Ham Common are also within easy reach.

For families, the area is particularly compelling offering a remarkable selection of highly regarded schools including Tiffin Girls, The Kingston Academy, Grey Court and Fern Hill Primary, making this one of South West London's finest postcodes to put down roots.
