Description

Situated on the sought after Barnfield Avenue in North Kingston, this larger style 1930s house offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. Spanning an impressive 1,072 square feet, the property boasts two spacious reception rooms along with an extended kitchen/dining room, providing ample space for both relaxation and entertaining.

Upstairs the house features three well-proportioned bedrooms and a large bathroom with further potential to extend into the loft (STPP), making it an ideal home for families or those seeking extra space.

One of the standout features of this property is the beautiful 63-foot rear garden, a perfect sanctuary for outdoor activities, gardening, or simply enjoying the fresh air. Additionally, the property is well positioned for local schools, making it an excellent choice for families looking to settle in a community-oriented area. With its charming 1930s architecture and generous living space, this home on Barnfield Avenue is a rare find. Don't miss the chance to make this lovely house your new home.

Situation

Barnfield Avenue is a sought after road within the Tudor development in North Kingston situated a short distance from the River Thames and within close proximity of Richmond Park. This is a wonderful environment for a family being ideally positioned between Kingston and Richmond town centres with their extensive range of shops, restaurants and overland & underground stations providing services to Waterloo and the City. The local shops of Ham Parade are close by and Ham common is a short walk away. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
