Description

Situated on the popular Tudor Drive in North Kingston, this fully extended semi-detached 1930s house offers a perfect blend of classic charm and modern convenience. With four bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, this property is ideal for families seeking comfort and space.

As you enter, you are greeted by the inviting front reception room along with the downstairs cloakroom & utility. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the stunning extended kitchen dining room, which provides a bright and airy space for family meals and gatherings. This area seamlessly connects to the delightful 46ft rear garden which is a true gem, providing a peaceful retreat for outdoor enjoyment.

For those with vehicles, the property boasts off street parking, a valuable asset in this desirable area. Furthermore, the location is particularly appealing, being in close proximity to highly rated schools, making it an excellent choice for families prioritising education.

In summary, this impressive house on Tudor Drive is a rare find, combining modern amenities with classic elegance in a sought-after neighbourhood. It is a perfect opportunity for anyone looking to settle in a vibrant community while enjoying the comforts of a well-designed family home.

Situation

Tudor Drive is a sought after road ideally situated in the popular Tudor Estate in North Kingston. The property is conveniently positioned for both Kingston and Richmond stations giving direct access into Waterloo, and the A3 which serves both London & the M25. Kingston and Richmond town centres with their array of shops and restaurants are a short distance away and Latchmere Rec, the River Thames and Richmond park are all near by. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
