Description

Located on the well-regarded Latchmere Lane in North Kingston, this three-bedroom 1930s semi-detached house offers a solid combination of character, space, and practicality. Two generous reception rooms provide a versatile layout suited to family life and entertaining alike, while the proportions throughout reflect the quality of the period.

To the rear, a stunning 75ft west-facing garden is a notable asset, offering plenty of outdoor space and a favourable aspect for afternoon and evening sun. The property also offers potential for extension, subject to the usual consents, for those looking to add further value or adapt the space to their requirements.

Off-street parking is an added convenience, and the position directly opposite Latchmere Recreation Ground gives immediate access to open green space - a genuinely useful amenity for families and those who enjoy the outdoors.

In summary, a well-located family home with period charm and room to grow, offered in a popular and established residential setting. Do not miss the chance to make this wonderful property your new home.

Situation

Latchmere Lane is a sought-after road in the heart of North Kingston, well-placed for both Kingston and Norbiton stations with direct services into Waterloo, as well as easy access to the A3 for London and the M25. Kingston and Richmond town centres are within easy reach, offering an excellent range of shops and restaurants, while Latchmere Recreation Ground, the River Thames, and Richmond Park are all close by. The area is also well-served by schools, with excellent options across both the state and private sectors.
