Description

Situated within this historic Grade II listed development, this delightful ground floor flat offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Built in the 1950s, the property is presented to a high standard throughout and the large windows ensure it is filled with natural light.

Upon entering, you will find a spacious reception room that serves as an ideal space for relaxation or entertaining guests. The flat boasts two well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample room for both rest and personal space. The bathroom is thoughtfully designed, catering to all your daily needs.

One of the standout features of this property is the patio doors that lead directly to a secluded communal garden. This outdoor space is perfect for enjoying a quiet moment or hosting gatherings with friends and family. Additionally, the flat includes an external storage room and a storage locker, offering practical solutions for keeping your belongings organised and secure.

The location is truly enviable, with Ham Common and the expansive Richmond Park both nearby. These green spaces provide a wonderful opportunity for leisurely walks, picnics, and outdoor activities, making it an ideal setting for nature lovers.

In summary, this charming flat in Parkleys presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a comfortable and well-located home. With its high standard of presentation, outdoor space, and proximity to local parks, it is sure to appeal to a variety of buyers looking for a peaceful retreat in a vibrant community.

Situation

Parkleys is situated within a conservation area and is a Grade II listed development designed by the post war architect Eric Lyons, famous in the 1950's for creating the first "span development" homes. The property is conveniently positioned for Ham Parade offering local shops and bus routes, and Kingston and Richmond town centres, Ham Common, the River Thames and Richmond Park are all easily accessible. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
