Description:

Gibson Lane proudly offer to the market this delightful 1930's end of terrace family home which has been modernised to a really good standard throughout. Having undergone modernisation which included a fantastic fully functional & self contained outbuilding that provides a double bedroom, en-suite bathroom and own heating system. This is a key feature to the property which allows extra living space for those who may need adequate space to work from home, self contained bedroom perfect for older children or just additional space for a growing family. Internally the property provides a lovely reception room which leads into the open-plan kitchen diner ideal for hosting. The upper floor gives two double bedrooms, one single bedroom & family bathroom. External features include a good size low maintenance garden, external storage area positioned behind the outbuilding, side access from the front and off-street parking for 1-3 cars.

Being within the heart of North Kingston the location of this house is perfect for families seeking to be within the catchment zones for the highly regarded local schools, along with being positioned perfectly for access to Kingston town centre, Kingston station & Richmond Park with its many acres of open space. The river Thames is within walking distance which gives pleasant riverside walks and cycle ways.

Location:

Aragon Road is a sought after address ideally situated in the popular Tudor Estate in North Kingston. The property is conveniently positioned for both Kingston and Richmond stations giving direct access into Waterloo, and the A3 which serves both London & the M25. Kingston and Richmond town centres with their array of shops and restaurants are a short distance away and the River Thames and Richmond park are both near by. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
