Asking Price £1,000,000

A delightful detached 1930's built family home with accommodation approaching 1100 sqft, offering tremendous extension potential & situated in this sought after residential Road.

Description

A delightful detached 1930's built family home with accommodation approaching 1100 sqft, presented to a high standard internally, occupying this generous plot with off street parking to the front and a secluded rear garden of almost 60 ft. The spacious ground floor footprint is ideal for family living and entertainment, featuring a terrific 26' double reception room, leading to a conservatory that opens directly onto the rear garden. The upper floor offers 3 bedrooms (2 large doubles) and a modern fitted shower room with separate WC. There is tremendous potential (subject to consent) to extend the property to the side, rear and possibly into the loft to create a significantly larger property with an arrangement of approximately 2000 sqft. Viewings are highly recommended to fully appreciate this fine home and its potential.

Situation

Robin Hood Lane is a sought after residential road, ideally situated for Kingston, Putney, Wimbledon and Richmond which offer a wide variety of excellent schooling, shops, theatres, cinemas, bars, restaurants and train services. There are also a number of smaller convenience stores just a short walk away. For motorists, the A3 is easily accessible and provides a fast route in and out of central London and to the M25 for access to Heathrow and Gatwick airports. Both Richmond Park and Wimbledon Common with their hundreds of acres of open space ideal for walking, bike riding and other sporting pursuits are moments away.
