A modern, bright bathroom with white cabinetry, a large mirror, and a glass-enclosed shower area. The room features light-colored tiled walls and floors. A white vanity unit with multiple drawers and cabinets runs along the wall, topped with a white countertop and a sink. A large, arched mirror is mounted above the sink, reflecting the room. To the left, a glass-enclosed shower area is visible, with a showerhead and a small shelf. A window is located above the shower area, providing natural light. A toilet is partially visible in the foreground on the right. The overall design is clean and minimalist.
