Description

Nestled on the charming St. Albans Road in Kingston Upon Thames, this exquisite Edwardian detached family home offers a splendid blend of period features and modern living. Spanning an impressive 1,728 square feet, the property boasts four generously sized double bedrooms, making it an ideal choice for families seeking space and comfort.

Upon entering, you are greeted by two inviting reception rooms, perfect for both entertaining guests and enjoying quiet family evenings. The layout is thoughtfully designed, with a utility room and a convenient downstairs WC and shower room, enhancing the practicality of daily life.

The home retains much of its Victorian charm, with elegant architectural details that reflect its rich history. Additionally, there is significant potential to extend the property, subject to planning permission, allowing you to tailor the space to your family's needs.

In summary, this Edwardian detached house on St. Albans Road is a rare find, combining spacious living with the potential for further enhancement. It is a perfect opportunity for those looking to settle in a vibrant community while enjoying the comforts of a well-appointed family home.

Situation

Located in this premier North Kingston road within close proximity of Richmond Park and moments from Canbury Gardens and the River Thames, St Albans Road is an extremely sought after address. Kingston town centre with its array of shops, bars, restaurants and station is within three quarters of a mile distance. The A3, which serves both London and the M25 is easily accessible by car. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sectors, these include Latchmere, Fernhill, the German School and Tiffin boys and girls. The area has an extensive range of leisure facilities including golf courses, tennis clubs, sailing, riding schools and private and public health clubs.
