Situation

Avenue South is a highly sought-after residential street located in the heart of Surbiton’s popular KT5 postcode. This leafy, well-maintained avenue is known for its peaceful suburban charm while offering excellent connectivity to Central London and the wider Kingston borough. The area is particularly popular with families and professionals, thanks to its proximity to outstanding local schools, including the well-regarded Tolworth Girls’ School and St Matthew’s CoFE Primary. Avenue South is within walking distance of both Surbiton and Tolworth stations, providing fast and frequent rail services to London Waterloo in as little as 17 minutes. Residents benefit from a wealth of nearby amenities, including a variety of independent shops, cafés, and supermarkets. The bustling Surbiton high street is just a short distance away, offering a mix of dining, retail, and leisure options. Green spaces such as Victoria Park and Alexandra Recreation Ground are nearby, perfect for outdoor activities and family time. With its blend of tranquility, community spirit, and superb transport links, Avenue South represents an ideal location for those seeking a balanced lifestyle in a well-connected suburban setting.
