Generously proportioned rooms create an inviting setting for both everyday living and entertaining. The property boasts exceptionally generous accommodation arranged over the first and second floors.

On the first floor, there is a stunning 27ft open-plan kitchen/reception room with Juliet balcony, the modern kitchen area features high-quality appliances and an exposed brick feature wall. Also on this floor are two double bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

Stairs to the second floor provide sole access to an impressive principal suite, comprising a large bedroom area and a vast en-suite bathroom with an extensive amount of storage.

Outside, a private rear garden provides a welcome space to relax, entertain and dine al fresco. Additionally, there is a practical outbuilding, currently used as a gym but offering flexible use as a home office. It is also equipped with a shower room with WC and a separate store area, ideal for housing garden equipment.

A dropped kerb and double gates provide the distinct benefit of vehicular access to a hardstanding patio area, with a bike store and off-street parking for one car. There is also an EV charger for an electric or hybrid vehicle.
