Description

Situated on the Kingston Road in Kingston Upon Thames, this delightful semi-detached family home, built between 1930 and 1939, offers a perfect blend of period features and modern living. Spanning an impressive 1,376 square feet. Upon entering there is an entrance hall leading onto a front reception room with bay window and feature fireplace, down the hall there is a downstairs Shower/WC and stunning modern kitchen opening onto a spacious reception/dining room with patio doors going directly out onto a private rear garden, ideal for both entertaining guests and enjoying family time.

The home comprises three generously sized double bedrooms, providing ample space for a growing family or guests. With two well-appointed bathrooms, family bathroom upstairs and downstairs shower/WC making morning routines a breeze, ensuring convenience for all. The south-facing garden is a true highlight, offering a sun-drenched outdoor space perfect for relaxation or al fresco dining. Additionally, an outbuilding with power in the garden presents a versatile option for a home office, studio, or extra storage.

Parking is made easy with off-street space for two vehicles, a valuable feature in this sought-after area. Furthermore, there is potential to extend the property, subject to necessary planning consent, allowing you to tailor the home to your specific needs.

This period semi-detached house is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice, situated in a vibrant community with excellent local amenities, schools, and transport links.
