Description

Situated on the corner of Latchmere Road and Richmond Road, this splendid Victorian residence offers an impressive 3,671 square feet of living space, perfect for families seeking both comfort and elegance. With six generously sized bedrooms and four well-appointed bath/shower rooms, this home provides ample accommodation for both relaxation and entertaining.

As you enter, you are greeted by a grand entrance hall that showcases the property, with many period features through out this wonderful home, with plenty of fireplaces and ceiling roses reflecting the timeless charm of Victorian architecture. There are two generous reception rooms, an eat in kitchen within a conservatory extension, downstairs bathroom and additional bedroom/Study on the ground floor, there are also stairs leading down to a large cellar where utilities are currently kept.

Externally the property had a delightfully landscaped private rear garden and also boasts the added benefit of off-street parking to the front, a rare find in such a desirable location. For those with a vision for modernisation, you could certainly make this terrific home your own.

This remarkable home combines historical character with the potential for contemporary living, making it an ideal choice for those looking to invest in a property that offers both space and style. With its prime location and generous accommodation, this Victorian house is a true gem waiting to be discovered.

Situation

Richmond Road is a sought after road situated a short distance from the River Thames and within close proximity of the 2,400 acre Richmond Park. This property is ideally positioned between Kingston and Richmond town centres with their extensive range of retail outlets, restaurants and overland and underground stations. The local shops of Ham Parade are just moments away and Ham Common is also close by. The standard of schooling within the immediate area is excellent and includes: Grey Court, Tiffin School for Girls, The Kingston Academy and Fern Hill primary.
