Description

Experience luxurious living in this design forward, 3 double bedroom semi-detached home, featuring an architect-designed ground floor extension that seamlessly blends style and functionality. This home effortlessly combines modern amenities with timeless elegance, offering a perfect blend of comfort and style in every detail. Showcased in the prestigious The Sunday Times 'Home' section, the kitchen living area is filled with natural light from 3 expansive rooflights. Architect-designed, it blends open-plan with smart zoning, creating a space that's impressive for entertaining, and cosy for evenings. The centrepiece is a 2.7m waterfall island. This and the matching backsplash are bespoke fabrications from Italian Calacatta Viola marble. Underfoot, it's practical luxe with premium limestone from Mandarin Stone. The kitchen's equipped with Neff appliances, including an induction hob, oven & microwave. Adding timeless textual variety are brass taps and cabinet hardware from deVOL & a fluted sink from Shaws of Darwen. Slim-framed sliding doors span the width and enable seamless indoor-outdoor living. The south-facing garden's rich with planting and is a peaceful, private sanctuary. The transition to the living area is marked by real wooden flooring arranged in a herringbone pattern, adding to the feeling of timeless chic and warmth. There is underfloor heating throughout the entrance and kitchen living areas. Installed in 2022, a Worcester Bosch boiler delivers reliable and economical heating & hot water throughout. The spacious front room is set around a large bay window and built-in cabinetry. It's an adaptable space; currently a peaceful home office and reading room, it could easily become a self-contained games room. The first floor bedrooms and shower room offer stylish spaces and comfort for guests or family. The entire second floor is dedicated to the master suite. Bedroom and bathroom skylights fill this private retreat with natural light and views over the rooftops.
