Queenhill, Upton-Upon-Severn, WR8 0RE

A picturesque Grade II listed detached home, set in 1.49 acres of private gardens, paddock and wood in the same ownership since 1966. Formally an Old School House and part of The Pull Court Estate, this historic home features the original school room with a French door onto the lawns, a smaller snug with inglenook fire place and a cottage kitchen with working Aga, three bedrooms and a full bathroom upstairs. Adjacent to the house is a small brick and timber chalet, timber garage, stables and tack room. Lawned gardens surround the property with access onto a coppice, large poultry run and paddock with a second separate entrance. The property has huge potential and requires a degree of restoration and modernisation, but offers a fantastic opportunity for a rural lifestyle situated in the hamlet of Queenhill. In addition there is possible scope to further develop the site using the footprint of existing outbuildings and the second drive access, subject to necessary permissions. Malvern and Cheltenham are within easy commute. Viewings strictly by appointment.

GARDENS

The Old School House sits in a mature plot of 1.49 acres. This can be accessed from two separate entrances. To the North side is gated driveway with pull in area which opens to a tarmac drive which leads to the house and continuing to the side to access to the rear garden and the garage. The majority of the front garden is laid to lawn, with a range of mature trees and shrubs raised above the lane by a low wall. Immediately to the front of the property is a small terrace accessible from the sitting room with space for table and chairs. A path leads around the property to the rear garden. The rear garden is mostly laid to lawn with a number of mature trees, flower beds and plenty of places to stop and look across the gardens and paddock to the countryside and the Malvern Hills beyond. Beyond the main garden and enclosed by a post and rail fence is a paddock which is accessible by a second driveway to the west side of the property. To the side of the paddock is a large chicken run, and the rear of the garden is made of a diverse woodland planted by the owner thirty years ago. There is a level area within the woodland that was the site of a former large livestock house. The rear of the property and most of the plot is private and south facing with views to the south west over countryside and to the Malvern Hills.
