Peachfield Road, Malvern, WR14 4AP

Built in 1909 and designed by famous Malvern Architect Troyte Griffiths, Greyroofs is an impressive eight bedroom Edwardian home set in a mature south facing plot of 0.85 acres with stunning views to the rear. Situated overlooking Peachfield Common, the property has previously been two separate dwellings and so offers excellent potential for multi-generational living or for continued use as a single family dwelling. The versatile accommodation includes five reception rooms, two bathrooms, up to three kitchens and a number of additional rooms ideal for home working in the outbuilding. The private front gardens are accessed via a gated driveway with access to a double garage and workshop, carport and coach garage. The large south facing rear gardens include a large full width sun terrace at the level of the reception rooms, formal lawns and a small orchard to the rear. Offering over 4500 square feet of living accommodation, a range of outbuildings, a glorious 0.85 acre south facing plot, this is a rare chance to purchase one of Malvern's finest original homes.
