Ledbury, HR8 1ET

A charming oak framed barn conversion, a rural escape nestled in its own piece of idyllic English countryside at the foot of the Malvern Hills. Originally dating from 1870, this delightful barn lies in the middle of a secluded valley, with a real sense of unspoilt nature provided by the garden, heritage orchard and the backdrop of trees giving a real sense of peace, quiet and tranquil privacy; all in a plot in excess of an acre. The immaculate and refurbished accommodation comprises; sitting room with wood burner, breakfast kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom, double garage and studio. The barn benefits from fibre broadband and offers the potential for sustainable living. The property is approached across common land track and sits in a small dell, of which all you see is owned by the property. Hollybush is a small village in at the southern end of the Malvern Hills and close to the borders of both Gloucestershire and Herefordshire and easily accessed from Ledbury and Malvern. Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity, not to be passed by.

LOCATION

The rural hamlet of Hollybush lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty at the southern end of the Malvern Hills. The nearby village of Eastnor has a church, nursery and primary school, a cricket club, an artisan forge and a pottery. Ledbury is a short drive away and has a thriving community, offering a good range of local facilities with a variety of independent shops, restaurants & pubs, as well as three supermarkets, a church, doctors' surgery, cottage hospital and theatre. Additional retail and cultural amenities are available at Malvern, Hereford and Worcester.

This part of Herefordshire lies on the Worcestershire/Gloucestershire borders and is renowned for its beautiful and unspoilt countryside. The area offers a sought-after rural quality of life combined with excellent road and rail links with mainline railway stations in Ledbury, Colwall and Malvern having direct access to Birmingham and London Paddington. The M50 motorway (junction 2) is approximately 4 miles away with access to the M5.

LAND AND GARDENS

The property extends to over an acre, accessed across common land along an unmade track, then onto a green lane that passes over another property with a right of access. A gate opens to the plot where the barn, double garage and studio will be ahead of you. The grounds immediately around the property are well maintained and laid to lawn. A rose covered oak pergola overlooks the pond and willow tree. The land as a whole incorporates a dell with a pond and small natural stream running down the centre surrounded by trees and fencing, there is an additional pedestrian gate at one of the higher points on the southern side with direct access to the common and onto the the many walks. The land is planted with a historic orchard of apple and pear trees, and has mown paths that take you around the plot to various vantage points, the higher regions having views towards the Severn Valley. The land is deliberately left as partially wild, encouraging natural wildlife such as green woodpeckers, trees and plants. A real haven of bird song, natural beauty, peace and tranquillity.
