HISTORIC MALVERN

Quintessentially English, steeped in culture and history, Malvern is the inspiration for Tolkein's Middle Earth, C.S Lewis' Narnia and Elgar's music. A designated area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with the Hills and the gently winding backstreets, famed for the healing properties of its spring water, Malvern has long been a site of inspiration for residents and visitors alike.

The Mount is a beautiful historic building on one of Malvern's premier residential streets. For over 150 years, the building served as an International boarding school and in his early career the composer Edward Elgar is known to have taught violin to the students at the property.

LIVING IN MALVERN

The Mount is an exclusive development of eleven contemporary high specification apartments located in the heart of historic Malvern.

The town centre with its village atmosphere and traditional charm are just a short stroll away. Here you will find independent boutiques and galleries, outstanding restaurants, award winning pubs and cafes, a range of supermarkets including Waitrose and a selection of swimming pools and fitness centres.

The renowned Malvern Theatre with it's world class productions and cinema, the Priory Church and the Winter Gardens are only a five minute walk away.

The Malvern Hills provide a sensational natural backdrop and miles of wonderful walks right on the doorstep.

Prominent Independent schools, Malvern College and Malvern St James are a few minutes by foot and the popular Malvern Parish school is also close by.

Malvern has excellent links by road and rail: Great Malvern and Malvern Link train stations are only a few minutes away with direct links to Worcester (10 minutes), Birmingham (1 hour) and London Paddington (2 hours 15 mins) with Junction 7 of the M5 a short drive away. Gloucester, Cheltenham, Stratford-Upon-Avon, Broadway, Bristol, Cardiff and Birmingham all readily accessible.

Upon completion of your new apartment at the Mount, Guthrie Roberts is delighted to offer a complimentary 1-year membership to a nearby gym is included. Situated within the prestigious Malvern St James sports complex, this membership includes access to it's state-of-the-art fitness facilities, fitness classes and activities. Members can also enjoy the on-site cafeteria.
