Summary Description

Set within an exclusive, small development on the northern edge of highly regarded Anslow, this two bedroom mid terraced cottage is offered chain free and presented in excellent condition. Ideal for first time buyers, downsizers or investors, the property combines a calm countryside setting with practical day to day convenience, including driveway parking and a single garage positioned directly opposite.

Inside, an inviting entrance hall leads through to a bright lounge, diner with French doors opening to the rear garden and a side window that adds extra natural light. The focal point is an Adam style fireplace with a living flame gas fire, complemented by exposed ceiling beams and wall lighting for a warm, homely feel. The kitchen is well planned with shaker style units, stone worktops and a traditional Belfast sink, plus integrated oven, gas hob, extractor, fridge, freezer and slimline dishwasher, alongside space and plumbing for a washing machine. Upstairs, the landing provides useful storage and access to a part boarded loft with fitted ladder. There are two well proportioned bedrooms, plus a bathroom with a bath and plumbed shower over.

Anslow is a popular village with a strong community feel, surrounded by open countryside yet within easy reach of Burton upon Trent for shopping, supermarkets, cafes and further leisure facilities. There is good access to local schooling in and around the area, and the A38 and A50 are both convenient for commuting towards Derby, Lichfield and beyond. Burton railway station provides wider connections, while local bus routes help with day to day travel.
