Summary Description

Located in the desirable village of Coton-in-the-Clay near Ashbourne, this four-bedroom semi-detached property enjoys a tranquil rural setting with panoramic countryside views. Ideal for buyers seeking privacy, space, and potential to enhance, the home is well-presented throughout but would benefit from some updating, allowing scope to personalise.

The accommodation is generously proportioned and offers excellent versatility across three floors. The ground floor includes a welcoming entrance hall with storage, a spacious sitting room with wood burner and garden access, a conservatory, formal dining room with fireplace, and a well-equipped shaker-style kitchen. A utility room, guest cloakroom, and handy downstairs toilet complete the ground floor. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms—three with built-in storage—and a modern family bathroom. The master bedroom, located in the attic conversion benefits from an en suite and twin rear windows overlooking open fields. Externally, the property occupies a generous plot with a long driveway providing ample tandem parking. The enclosed rear garden has been landscaped with lawn and patio, and also houses the oil tank and boiler shed.

Coton-in-the-Clay is a charming rural village within easy reach of Ashbourne and Burton-upon-Trent. The location provides access to a range of local amenities, good schooling options, and transport links via the A50 and A38, offering convenient road connectivity while maintaining a peaceful countryside feel.
