Yew Tree Cottage Utttoxeter Road, Foston, Derby, Derbyshire, DE65 5DL

Summary Description

The character accommodation is arranged over floors and requires a scheme of improvement and upgrading throughout. Internally the double glazed living accommodation in brief comprises; entrance hall with staircase, two reception rooms, fitted kitchen with large walk-in-pantry, utility and bathroom. To the first there are two well proportioned double bedrooms and further two double bedrooms located in the attic.

Outside the property is set well back from the road behind a tall boundary hedge with a deep fore garden in need of attention. To the side/rear of the property there is an adjoining brick built garage with double doors, separate stable door with pitched tiled roof (not inspected). To rear there is an enclosed walled yard. In our opinion there is scope for an extension subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

The property is located on the fringe of Foston, set on its own backing onto delightful open countryside. The historic market town of Utttoxeter is also situated within a short commute.

The sale provides a genuine opportunity to acquire a very attractively period period offered for sale with the added benefit of immediate vacant possession.
